

TEACHER'S STUDY GUIDE TO

THE ISLES

BY SARA FRANCIS

A NOTE FROM THE AUTHOR

HOW TO USE THIS GUIDE

Each chapter in this guide has several components: Summary, Questions, and Discussions.

Summary: These are brief summaries of each chapter. They contain the most important take away points and give the main idea of what was going on.

Questions: These questions are taken directly from the chapters themselves. The students can usually find the answers word for word in the book. They are in order of appearance and are usually short answer questions.

Discussions: Many of these discussion questions do NOT have answers. These can also be used as essay questions. They are meant to be thought provoking and for the student to think outside the box. These questions point out the elements in the book that relate to the world today. Note: some of these questions do have answers to explain what the author was thinking, but that doesn't mean that is the only correct answer. It is up to you to decide whether they answered correctly or not.

Worksheets: This guide starts with the worksheets and ends with the teacher's answer key. There are spaces for them to write answers to the questions but NOT the discussion topics. Those will be answered either orally or in essay form on a separate sheet of paper.

Thank you for choosing THE ISLES! If you have any questions, want to leave feedback, or want to hire Sara Francis for her other services, contact her through her website:

Alison was with five others: Ethan, Mark, Marlene, Jeremy, and Sami. The first thing they did as a group was have lunch where they talked and learned more about one another. They all seemed to be skeptical about the way the Keepers ran things... except for Jeremy (a Seer) who continued to defend Mr. Nik. Mark, however, repeatedly put him in his place with the many theories he had about the Isles that caused everyone to think. After that, the rest of the day was spent scavenging about Isle III in search for ridiculous items they needed to collect. At the end, they all head back to their cabin to get ready for bed. After eating, they gather the supplies they found yesterday and begin to build a catapult. Once it was functioning, they decided to test it by launching Sami across the Island. When Alison brought her back to the ground, a nearby team began attacking. After destroying the other team's artillery, Sami and friends hid their catapult and continued with the challenges. The final challenge occurred at the beach where Ethan dove into the water to rescue a drowning child. They relaxed at the beach for a bit and then headed back to the cabin, where Jeremy asked Alison what her siblings' names were. She couldn't remember. Mark was confused because he previously mentioned that he remembered his family clearly. She also mentions that she thinks it's odd that no one knows their last names, which Mark has a theory for but refuses to tell them.

QUESTIONS

- 1. Why doesn't Sami think she can be friends with a Bionic?

CHAPTER 12 – AARON IV

(ANSWER KEY)

SUMMARY

Aaron continues the story and talks about his experience on the final day of the Isle Meetings. He describes that the challenges for the day were to help them train for a “life-or-death” scenario. Aaron is on team Yared, the representative of Savivors. After arriving at their first stop, they meet a rival team who was Winfred, an Overlord. Once they receive instructions to fight for the turf, everyone around Aaron begins to attack. Confused, Aaron stands there for a moment before joining in. During the fight, Aaron meets an Asset, Donnie, whose reasoning for attacking was because the instructions said so. At the end of the fight, Yared and Aaron get into an argument about the battle. Yared confesses he didn’t want to fight but they have no choice. The day goes on and they continue to fight other groups. The final battle was at night back behind Isle III’s facility. The opposing team was nowhere in sight and used trickery as their strategy. After his team was picked off one by one, Aaron was left by himself to fight head-to-head with a Mutant cat girl. In the end, he was forced to surrender when he saw one of his best friends, Mark, on the other team. Aaron’s teammates were unharmed and the losers of that final match.

QUESTIONS

- 1. Who was the self-proclaimed leader of Aaron’s team? What was he like that surprised Aaron?

 - A. Donnie said that since the instructions told them to, they should do it.
- 4. What were Yared’s thoughts about the whole situation?

- 5. Briefly describe how the final match went and who won:
 - A. Team Yared were on the ground in the field when the stadium lights began to flicker on and off. Then, an eerie voice spoke to them from what seemed like all directions. While she was speaking, Aaron’s teammates vanished one by one until only Aaron remained. After fighting with a Mutant, the lights flashed back on and Mark asked Aaron to surrender. Not wanting to fight his friend, Aaron obeyed and surrendered, making the opposing team the victors.

CHAPTER 13 – ALISON V (ANSWER KEY)

SUMMARY

It's the day after the final challenge. Alison and her team went back to the R&D Facility and met with the other team. After a brief quarrel, the two teams went inside and met with the Headmaster and Keepers, who were proud of both teams. Before lunch, they had Mark go up and explain how they won the final challenge which left the Keepers impressed. After mingling in the Library, the six victors and Aaron were called to Stratum 0's classroom. There, Mr. Nik explained his reasons for the challenges and showed them a map of their ruined world. He said he needed to find students who were fit to leading their entire regiment when it was time to take back the Mainland from the Invaders. The six victors had proven themselves and were chosen to be the Commanders of their respective Isle (but Aaron and Jeremy were given second-in-command). After receiving items from the Keepers, the Commanders were told to think about choosing a second- and third-in-command if not already chosen. After that, they were dismissed and Alison closes her log.

QUESTIONS

1. Why did Yared yell at Alison? What was her response?
 - A. Yared was furious that his team hadn't won and took it out on Alison because she was the Bionic and the ghostly voice from the previous night. He claimed that she and her team were cowards and that they didn't actually fight. Unfazed, Alison stopped a punch Yared threw and replied that their top priority was to make sure no one was injured or killed.
2. Briefly describe Alison's team's plan (as Mark explained it). What did they base their strategy on? Were the Keepers impressed?
 - A. Step one was to kill the lights to confuse the team. Step two was to stealthily capture their opponents. Step three was to maintain them. Finally, step four was to force the remaining opponents into surrender. They based their strategy on making sure no one got hurt. The Keepers were very impressed.
3. What was the purpose of these challenges?
 - A. The Keepers needed to evaluate students and see which ones were fit to be the leaders of their regiments in order to take back the Mainland.
4. What happened to the Mainland (according to the current maps they have)?
 - A. The Invaders have taken over practically every part of the world.

On it, she has all the information about every individual that lives and has lived on her Isle. Curious, she clicks into a resident who is living in one of the worst parts of Isle VI. Mr. Mallory claims that not all of Isle VI looks that shabby, but she is still sad for the poor woman. Once she is familiar, she and the others go back to grab their second- and third-seats to introduce them to the Keepers. Once their introductions have concluded, Mr. Nik announces that they would be leaving for the Mainland in a few days but will have about two days to train. He claims that it will be a "test run" but the members are still nervous. After that meeting concluded, Sami and team were given instructions for their first training session which told them to go to Isle IV and await further orders. They took an old speedboat and camped out in one of the warehouses where Sami wrote the events in her log.

QUESTIONS

- 1. Who does Sami choose for her second- and third-in-commands?
 - A. Sami chooses her best friends, Becca and Lucas.

- 4. What were Sami's reasons for choosing Becca and Lucas? Did she make a good choice? Why or why not?
 - A. Sami chose them for their skills as well as their loyalty. She says that Becca is a great asset because of her unmatched speed. Lucas has an incredible sense of sight, can fly, and has the instincts to take out any target with speed and accuracy. (Answers may vary for the last two questions.)
- 5. Where does Sami and team have to go?
 - A. They were instructed to go to Isle IV, Assets.

DISCUSSIONS

- 6. Why does the author mention Lucas' vocab? Is there a second meeting?
 - A. AUTHOR EXPLANATION: She mentions Lucas' interest in learning Australian phrases because it shows that children want to learn. It shows that they have an insatiable curiosity that should not be limited to their education, like how Lucas did not have access to a library on Isle VI.

 - A. They needed the chips that the Invaders have in the backs of their necks. They found them in the bodies of the Invaders Alison killed the day before.
- 4. What is Mark's reasoning for the survivor's password?
 - A. Mark explains that the Invaders have no respect for any religion which gives them no desire to learn it. The people in Guadalajara are devout or know someone who is. This makes it easier to determine the good from the bad (to some degree of course).

DISCUSSIONS

- 5. Is the password of the survivors a clever one? Why or why not?
- 6. The Invaders use chips in the backs of their necks. A Mexican survivor remarks that we do the same to our pets. Why are chipping pets different than humans? Compare and contrast the two situations.

CHAPTER 18 – AARON VI

(ANSWER KEY)

SUMMARY

A cheery Mark wakes the Seventeen to prepare for the first important mission of their lives. Going out, they reach the base and start executing their plan. Aaron goes with a team past the artillery and takes out the man in the control room, allowing the rest of the ground forces to safely pass through. The team only has five minutes before the distraction team begins to make a mess outside. Inside, they find a few Invaders but not as many as Mark was expecting... not until they reach the field section of the stadium were the center controls and computers were. Having to fight and kill for the first time, the Isle members do their best to hold off the aggressive yet inhuman Invaders while Mark messes with the controls. After setting the device to self-destruct, the team races out of there and make it (thanks to Alison). Once they are back in the cathedral and all the members are awake, everyone asks Mark questions about the Invaders and why he had to destroy their computer, killing all of them. Mark explained that the Invaders' minds had been changed to only know the way of their superiors. He also told them that he had no other choice but to destroy the stadium which was the Invaders' base for all of Mexico. After they let the information sink in, Aaron goes to Alison and asks her why she was crying as she pulled Sami and him out of the burning stadium. She confessed that they reminded her of her siblings when she was running away from the Invaders during the Accident. Aaron consoles Alison and then goes to Mark for answers as to why he was so moody on the Isles before they left. Mark explained that he learned that the Saviors kill people rather than save them and one of them was his foster father. Appalled, Aaron tries to get to sleep but keeps thinking about Mark's untold secrets and the new horrors he learned.

QUESTIONS

- 1. Was everyone anxious for the mission? If not all, who wasn't and why?
 - A. Mark was the only one who wasn't nervous. He said he knows that they are doing what's right and that their deaths won't be in vain. He also mentioned that he hadn't spoken with people who believed and stood for the same things he did and that he got to go to Mass.
- 2. How did Mark, Aaron, Yared, and Cecil get the ground team into the base?
 - A. They used the chips to sneak past the artillery and into the weapon control room. There they knocked out the guard and Mark hacked into the controls, disarming the machines.
- 3. What was the field turned into? What part of the field did the team need to get to?
 - A. The largest control room Aaron's ever seen. The team needed to get to the main controls located in the center.
- 4. What did Mark do when he reached the center? Were his friends happy he did it? Why or why not? What was Mark's reasoning?
 - A. Mark blew up the entire stadium. His friends were upset with him because they felt most of those people were innocent. Mark said there was no other way because the base was for all of Mexico, not just Guadalajara.
- 5. What was Mark's explanation to Aaron for him acting weird at the Isles?
 - A. Mark explained that he learned that the Saviors kill people rather than save them and one of them was his foster father.

DISCUSSIONS

6. Why do you think the Invaders went crazy after Mark activated the self destruct?
7. Taking both sides into consideration, was Mark right with what he did (blowing up the OX base)? Was there another solution? Does he have innocent blood on his hands?

CHAPTER 19 – ALISON VII

(ANSWER KEY)

SUMMARY

It's the day after the battle and Alison wakes up to find all the survivors happily rebuilding the walls of the Church. After helping a bit, she and the others realize that they need more food otherwise the citizens won't survive. Getting a team together, Alison and friends go out to find supplies. They first check the ruins of the base which was fruitless. Mark goes through the Invaders' files and finds a hidden bunker under the University of Guadalajara. They take the lead and investigate. They find the entrance to the bunker in the sewers beneath the school. Mark gets them in no problem and they are all shocked at what they find. Behind the doors are hundreds of Mexican citizens being brainwashed. Mark immediately knows what is happening and leads the team into a nearby computer room where Alison records a message to hopefully counter the brainwashing process. Once the message is in play, the team continues to search for supplies but are caught by Invaders whom they defeat. In the midst of the fight, Mark goes to one of the citizens and asks what his purpose is to see if he is back to normal. Finding he's all right, Mark explains what to do when the others come to. Once all the Invaders were down and the citizens had a handle on the situation, Alison and the others grab crates of supplies and return to the cathedral. Upon their return, the subject of the Keepers arises and how they haven't been in contact. When Mark comments that they aren't trustworthy, Jeremy gets infuriated and accuses Mark of being a spy. Mark doesn't give a clear answer. Instead, he asks Jeremy questions that the boy can't answer. They came to the conclusion that somehow the Keepers made them forget. To explain, Mark confesses that he knows more than he lets on. He admits in stealing the books from Saviors back during the test run: Blueprints, Doctor's Manual, and The Saved. In the books it talks about all the secrets Saviors holds...especially the one where the survivors are brainwashed and the Saviors end up murdering people rather than saving them. In the end, Alison questions everything and wonders if it's all a lie?

QUESTIONS

1. What did the Isle members and the survivors need?
 - A. They needed more food.
2. Where was the Invaders' bunker located?
 - A. The University of Guadalajara.
3. What was the first thing they found in the bunker? How did they stop it?
 - A. They find Mexican citizens being brainwashed. The team goes into the computer room where Alison records a heartfelt message to counter the brainwashing process.
4. What does Jeremy say Mark is? How does he respond?
 - A. Jeremy claims that Mark is a spy for the Invaders. He isn't clear on his answer and only responds with questions, leading the Seventeen to doubt their Keepers.
5. What were the books Mark stole from Saviors? What does Mark claim are in them?
 - A. The books were Blueprints, Doctor's Manual, and The Saved. Mark claims that they say how the survivors must go through a mind wiping process before they can be set free. It also mentions how Saviors kill the people that are deemed defective or useless.

DISCUSSIONS

6. Why do you think Mark asks Miguel what his purpose in life is to see if he is cured?
 - A. AUTHOR ANSWERS: The Invaders purpose in life is to destroy and conquer, creating the world in their image. If the man said anything other than that, it would mean his mindset and will was not altered.

7. Is Jeremy wrong for accusing Mark of being a spy? What would you do if you were in Jeremy's shoes?

CHAPTER 20 – SAMI VII

(ANSWER KEY)

SUMMARY

The next morning, everyone was still thinking about what Mark said the day before about the Keepers and the Saviors duties. Nevertheless, they continued to help the citizens rebuild the cathedral walls before the jet came to retrieve them. Before they knew it, the aircraft arrived and took off with the Seventeen, leaving the Mainland behind. On the plane, the pilot and co-pilot foolishly and violently tied up Mark. During the return journey, Mark miraculously managed to escape and effortlessly knocked out the pilot and copilot, hijacking of the plane. He then asks his confused Bionic friends if he can adjust their Optic Transmitters (the cameras and sensors in their prosthetic eyes). Everyone bickers until Mark explains that the Bionics have kill switches built into their armor if they ever go rogue. He wanted to save them. After some arguing, Alison and Axel finally allow Mark to proceed, but Alison has one condition. She wants to remember her past. Mark granted her request but it took its toll on her, so Sami comforts Alison as best she can. Once the Bionics were disconnected, they realize they need to get back to the Isles ASAP. So Mark puts the pilots back in their places and asks the Seers to tie him up again. After that is done, they arrive back to the Isle of Research and Development where a team of Seers rush into the bay and take Mark away, saying that they received an anonymous tip that he may be working for the Invaders. Distressed, the rest of the Seventeen go meet with the Keepers who threw them a party as if nothing was wrong. Finally, they were sent to bed where they can only wonder what was happening to Mark.

QUESTIONS

1. What happened when Mark first got on the plane? Why was that a foolish move on the pilots' part?
 - A. The pilot and co-pilot cuffed and tied up Mark. This was foolish because 1) he was already in a position that he couldn't escape and 2) it gave him cause to hijack the plane and make a move.
2. What did Mark claim the white ring around the Bionics' hearts were?
 - A. Mark claims that the white ring around their hearts was a "kill switch". An indicator that, if the Bionics went rogue, the Keepers could kill them in an instant.
3. What did Mark want to do that he needed to ask the Bionics' permission? Did they agree?
 - A. Mark asked to tweak their Optic Transmitters, cutting off their connection with the Keepers. They agreed.
4. What happened to Mark when they landed? What was the pilots excuse?
 - A. When they landed, Seers rushed in and took Mark away. The pilots claimed that they received an anonymous tip the Mark is working for the Invaders and has been lying the entire time.

DISCUSSIONS

5. Based on what you've read so far, do you think Mark is a spy or not? Use references from chapters to support your position.

CHAPTER 21 – AARON VII (ANSWER KEY)

SUMMARY

Everyone woke up early to see if they can find Mark. Before doing so, they went to get breakfast. Grabbing food, they hid in Aaron's Stratum 8 homeroom where he ran into Mrs. Pieper once again. Rather than ratting them out, she shows her distress that Mark was taken into custody (even though no one was supposed to know that). She then explains that she helped Mark sneak into the Isles five years ago, shocking the Seventeen. Wanting to help, she gives Aaron the location of the Nerve Center, the Keepers meeting center and Mr. Nik's residence. They trust her and go looking. In the Library, they find two books that hid the switches that lead to their destination: 1984 by George Orwell and The Communist Manifesto by Karl Marx. Activating the switches, they are led down a secret staircase beneath the floor. At the bottom they find four rooms. In the room labelled "Inquiry", Axel detects Mark and the other Keepers... but he sees one of them approaching. Not wanting to get caught, the Isle members duck into the Nerve Center where they find the master computer and all the Keepers files. Aaron nonchalantly takes some blueprints and puts them into Mark's backpack while Cecil ducks behind the computer to download information. As Cecil is working, Mr. Bamber, Keeper of Isle III, walks in on them and wonders what they are up to. Aaron immediately runs to his superior and says they are looking for Mark. Mr. Bamber is proud that they figured out where their secret control center was but advises them to return to Classroom Zero. Cecil finished the download in time and the Isle members left. Once they were back in the Overlord's classroom, Cecil starts going through the files and finds the security footage of Mark's interrogation. They see how cruel Wally is to him and how he almost beats him to death. The Isle members are in terror and hope to do whatever they can to set Mark free.

QUESTIONS

1. After they got breakfast, whose classroom did they hide in?
 - A. The Isle members hid in Aaron's old homeroom, Classroom 20, that belongs to Mrs. Pieper.
2. What did the classroom teacher claim to have done for Mark? What other info did he/she give Aaron?
 - A. Mrs. Pieper said she helped Mark sneak into the Isles five years ago. She also disclosed the location of where Mark was being kept: the Nerve Center.
3. Where was the Nerve Center located? How did they get the entrance to open?
 - A. The Nerve Center was located underneath the Library. The team needed to find switches behind two of Mr. Nik's favorite books: 1984 by George Orwell and The Communist Manifesto by Karl Marx.
4. What did they do while they were in the Nerve Center?
 - A. While the team was in the Nerve Center, they snooped around and Cecil downloaded information off of the Keepers' master computer.
5. Briefly recall the accusations Wally and Nik made against Mark:
 - A. Wally and Mr. Nik claim that Mark isn't who he says he is, that he stole the Saviors' books, interfered with their communications, and that he thinks ill of the Keepers.

DISCUSSIONS

6. Ava makes a point that Mr. Nik doesn't know "he's evil". Do you think she's right?
7. What do you make of the comment Wally makes about "killing patients in the emergency room”?

BONUS QUESTION!

8. What pop culture reference did Aaron make when he was in the kitchen?
 - A. He referenced the first Jurassic Park when the kids were trapped with the raptors in the kitchen.

CHAPTER 22 – ALISON VIII

(ANSWER KEY)

SUMMARY

Mr. Bamber takes the Isle members to the outskirts of Isle III where they find ruined houses along the shoreline. There was only one still intact. Going inside, they find Mr. Nik who had prepared lunch for them, his mood bright and chipper. They are all afraid to eat because they think it's poisoned. When Mr. Nik questions their caution, little Ava says she's scared because "men with guns" took Mark away. Not wanting her to get upset, Mr. Nik promises that they can finally see him. After lunch, he takes them to the basement where Mark lay motionless and shirtless on a cold table. Alison freezes at the sight...not at Mark, but the room itself. It was the room she was first operated in... it was where the Isles officially began. Going over to Mark, Nik scolds Wally for knocking him out again. Ethan and the other Saviors offer to take a look at him and conclude that the synthetic poisons Wally injected him with were going to kill him. Dr. Agro comes in to help his students. After mixing an antidote, the Saviors' Keeper removes Mark's shirt revealing an unknown brand. Too busy to comment, Dr. Agro injects the poison and Mark violently arouses, thrashing back and forth. Bitter, Mr. Bamber takes Mr. Nik outside to discuss the matter. The Isle members brought Mark upstairs and left Dr. Agro and Wally behind to argue. An hour passed before the truck returned to take the Seventeen back to the R&D Facility to rest. Getting into the truck, Alison notices that Sami looked distressed. She overheard something the Keepers were saying about Mark. Alison didn't get an opportunity to ask, so she left it alone for now. Once they were back and in the dorms, Aaron returns Mark's backpack. Inside, Mark finds the blueprints his friend stole and is amazed. Then, Cecil shows him the drive and Mark becomes ecstatic, saying that they can finally go home and escape the nightmare. To explain, Mark shows them the grotesque recording of Alison's surgery that took place eight years ago. He shows that they manipulated her brain. Mark also pulls up a document written in Mr. Nik's handwriting explaining how everyone must become like little children in order for their plan to be easy. Mr. Nik quotes, "He alone, who owns the youth, gains the future." Mark orders everyone to keep what they know quiet and they all go to bed.

QUESTIONS

1. Is Alison having second thoughts about some of the Keepers?
 - A. Alison is having second thoughts about some of the Keepers. She looks out onto the beach and sees the Keepers throwing rocks into the ocean and talking. Alison wonders if they were actually remorseless killers. To her, they seemed more like sentimental, misunderstood men.
2. Are all the Keepers distrusting of Mark? Which ones are and which ones aren't?
 - A. Not all of them distrust Mark. The ones who distrust Mark are Wally and Mr. Nik. The ones who seem indifferent are Mr. Calvin, Dr. Agro, and Mr. Bamber.
3. What did Mark show them to convince them the Isles were a "nightmare"?
 - A. Mark shows them Alison's surgery eight years ago when she became a Bionic. He shows that they manipulated Alison's brain to make her forget who she was and how they can control her from the inside if necessary.
4. Why does Mr. Nik think children are the only people who can make his plan succeed?
 - A. Mr. Nik says, "...the less they know, the more we can teach them and the easier it is for them to be disciplined."

5. Why do you think Mark was alluding to when he mentioned Mr. Mallory already made a shrew?

6. Do you think the person Mr. Nik quotes (“He alone, who owns the youth, gains the future.”) is a true statement? Why or why not?
 - A. NOTE: Do not tell the students that this is Hitler’s quote before asking the question. Let them think.

CHAPTER 23 – SAMI VIII

(ANSWER KEY)

SUMMARY

Sami wakes up with Mr. Nik and Wally's conversation swirling in her mind. She needed an opportunity to talk to Alison, but she couldn't because Mark announced that the Keepers might take him into custody again. He said that he sent a message back to the Mainland and they might pick up on it. Once again, they ask if he is a spy for the Invaders. This time, Mark gives them an answer: no. Just like that, they trusted him again. After Mark alters their BoMFs (Bracelet of Many Functions) so they cannot be tracked, the Seventeen go down and meet Mr. Bamber in the Library. Distressed, the Keeper tells Mark that they took Mrs. Pieper for questioning and if he didn't confess they would do something terrible to her. Mr. Bamber truly didn't know anything that was going on. So, Mark gave a little explanation saying that Mrs. Pieper snuck him into the Isles because he was too old to live with the students. He didn't want to live alone. He confessed that he was actually 25 years old rather than 20 like the other members of his Stratum. Mr. Bamber bought the story and led the Seventeen back down to the Inquiry to see the Keepers and Mrs. Pieper. There Mr. Bamber relayed Mark's story but Wally didn't buy it and they started asking Mark questions again. They were about to get a confession out of him when Mr. Allaway, Keeper of Isle I, barged in and said they had an emergency. Someone had infiltrated the Isles and was finally detected. Dr. Agro confesses that this individual could've been the guilty one, not Mark. Not getting off the hook just yet, Mr. Nik orders Mark and team to find the intruder and prove his innocence. Mark makes the deal and the Seventeen return to their dorms to prepare for their search the next day. Mr. Bamber pulls Mark out of the room to talk while Mrs. Pieper remains with Sami and the others. When Mr. Bamber returns, he promises that he will do whatever it takes to help. He orders the Isle members to pack their bags and weapons, telling them to be prepared for trouble. Before going to sleep, Sami finally tells Alison what she heard Mr. Nik talking about. She says that Mr. Nik says that they knew Mark before the Isles, that his name wasn't Mark, and he was involved in "bad stuff". Unsure what to believe, Alison tells Sami that the only thing that they could do was trust Mark. They didn't have a choice.

QUESTIONS

1. After Mark mentions he sent a message on a secret frequency, are his friends' suspicious? Do they trust him?
 - A. When Mark mentions the frequency, Donnie asks if he was a spy for the Invaders, causing everyone to doubt again. When Mark insists that he isn't, everyone seems to trust him again.
2. Does Mr. Bamber know what's going on within the Isles?
 - A. No, it appears that Mr. Bamber is completely clueless when it comes to the Isles' secrets.
3. What was Mark's explanation for Mrs. Pieper sneaking him into the Isles?
 - A. Mark gave a little explanation saying that Mrs. Pieper snuck him into the Isles because he was too old to live with the students. He didn't want to live alone. He confessed that he was actually 25 years old rather than 20 like the other members of his Stratum.
4. What is Mr. Nik's deal for Mark before he is declared innocent?
 - A. Mr. Nik says if Mark captures the intruder he is cleared.

DISCUSSIONS

5. After all the stories and rumors, if you were in Sami's shoes, would you still trust Mark?

Why or why not?

6. Do you think going against Mr. Nik is a good idea? Why or why not?

CHAPTER 24 – AARON VIII

(ANSWER KEY)

SUMMARY

The Seventeen are taken to Isle II, Saviors, where the intruder was last seen. Once Dr. Agro leaves them to their search, Mark takes everyone to the shore where Aaron sees another island in the distance. Mark calls it the Forbidden Isle and explains that where the intruders are hiding. When they arrive, they are amazed to find that it is inhabited by natives. They are approached by a large man named Chief Kapono Iokua who takes them to his hut. Inside they find a short woman named Shannon Hollinger in a black combat uniform that instantly embraces Mark (only as a friend). Finally, Mark tells his friends the whole truth. He explains that he and Shannon are from an organization on the Mainland called RRPR (Resist Rescue Protect Retake). Apparently, Mr. Nik had been kidnapping the people they saved and dragging them to the Isles. Thinking it might be a misunderstanding, RRPR decides to send a man to the Isles to see if there could be a possible alliance or if Mr. Nik was just another force to be stopped. Mark wasn't chosen to volunteer but he went anyway, leaving everyone and everything he knew behind. Getting to the Isles, Mark met Mrs. Pieper in the Saviors' facility. Mrs. Pieper was visiting her newlywed husband and Mark went with her to see him. To their horror, the nurse had killed him before they arrived. That day forward, Mark was determined to find the truth about the Isles and do whatever it took to stop the evil of the Isles. After that story, everyone sat in silence. Chief Kapono was disgusted that people and the beloved Hawaiian Islands were treated in such a way. He explained that the Invaders bombed all the islands, killing millions. He said the only reason the Forbidden Island was left alone because Mr. Nik didn't deem it useful and thought it was inhabitable. Once the chief left, Mark wondered why Shannon was the only RRPR member to show up. Shannon explained that she wasn't supposed to come alone but snuck off anyway and that the others would be there soon. In the meantime, the Isle members were to rest and wait.

CHAPTER 26 – SAMI IX (ANSWER KEY)

SUMMARY

The Seventeen and Shannon wake up, bid the Chief farewell, and depart for the Isles. Their plan is for Shannon to be taken into custody so the Keepers are distracted in order for the Seventeen to take over the Nerve Center. When Shannon is taken away, they immediately put their plan into effect. They return to Isle III and carry out the first part of their plan: overthrow the electronic portion of the Isles. With Mr. Bamber's help and some difficulty, they manage to do so. The next part of the plan was to rescue Shannon. While Sami and some members waited outside, Mark and a team ran inside to rescue her. They returned with an unconscious Shannon and an army of Seers on their tails. Running for their lives, they made their way to Mr. Bamber's private jet on the other side of Isle III's training fields, which returned to their natural state. Unfortunately, Mr. Nik was there first. Mr. Bamber argues that the work Mr. Nik and the Keepers were doing was no better than that of the Invaders. The other Keepers tried to ignore him, but they knew he was right...except for Mr. Nik and Wally. Before Wally could shoot Mr. Bamber, a bomb went off in the hangar behind them, knocking everyone off their feet. Sami could only see dark figures rushing about before going unconscious. When she came to, she was on a ship being attended by people in black wearing scarves over their mouths. They told her to go to sleep, so she did.

DISCUSSIONS

5. Do you think Sami mercilessly attacking the Seers was necessary? Why or why not?

CHAPTER 27 – AARON IX (ANSWER KEY)

SUMMARY

Aaron wakes up on one of RRPR's main battleships. He and the other boys (excluding Mark) are in their own cabin on the ship. Once they're all ready, they wander around looking for the dining hall. Finding a young woman named Aymie, they follow her to the hall where the girls were waiting for them. After breakfast, they go to the surface and find Mark, Shannon, Mr. Bamber, and Mrs. Pieper. They were all badly hurt and Shannon was in a wheelchair. Following Mark, Aaron and the others were brought to the Director's conference room. Inside Aaron finds newspapers about Nik and the Isles. He comes to believe that they knew about the Isles more than they led on. He also spots a newspaper clipping titled "Mysterious Terrorists Strike Again" featuring an old image of his family in front of his family's coffee shop in Leavenworth, Washington. After showing it to his siblings, the Director of RRPR, Stanley Wyght, entered and explained to them that they've been after Nikita for years. He says that Nikita and Walter only want to defeat the Invaders (really called the Order of Xenophon) so they can take over the world in their place and they were going to do it with children. Finishing his explanation, the director calls in his Royal Veteran officers to introduce themselves to the Isle members. At the end of the line were two individuals Mark knew all too well: his triplet siblings, Shane and Aymie Hodgins. The reunion was cut short because there was much to do. Director Wyght instructed the Isle members to follow two of the Royal Veterans to their computer room where they would follow with the next part of the plan. There they recorded video messages to send to their Isles, begging them not to join the Keepers and to fight with them.

 - A. The Invaders' real name is the Order of Xenophon.
5. Who are Mark's family?

CHAPTER 28 – ALISON X

(ANSWER KEY)

SUMMARY

While Mr. Bamber and Mark were working on the chip-deactivating device, Alison and the other Isle members went to the surface to train with three Royal Veterans (RVs): Shane Hodgins, Nicolas Eerkens, and Sonny Wilcox. The plan was for each member to fight at least one of the RVs so they could get a feel for their fighting techniques and teach their soldiers. Each Isle member went up and fought an officer. Alison was absolutely amazed at the RVs stamina, technique, and durability. During Sami's fight with Sonny, she noticed her sister was more nervous than usually and staring at the officer with suspicion. However, she had to put it aside because her turn was upon her sooner than she realized. Alison and Axel fought the three officers together with all they had. Before they could distribute their final blow, their armor was immediately shut down. Mr. Bamber's device was up and operational. After taking a rest and watching Shannon fight, the Isle members went back to the control room with Mark where he told them to enjoy the night because it may be the last good one for a while. Together they all went to the Royal Veterans' lounge room where they spent the night joking and singing with the other officers. To end, the RRRP members sang Shannon's Gaelic lullaby and bid everyone goodnight. Before Alison went to bed, she asked Sami what was wrong with the officer, Sonny, she fought that day. Sami hinted that Sonny had a marking on his neck that meant he was part of the Order of Xenophon.

CHAPTER 29 – SAMI X

(ANSWER KEY)

SUMMARY

That morning, Sami woke up worrying more about Sonny betraying them than the dreadful mission to come. Before departing, they received assignments. Sami was to go with Jeremy, Zita, Sonny Wilcox, and Shane Hodgins to Isle VI. While she was walking to her boat she overheard one of Mark's friends (Blake Bain) talking to Aymie. He mentioned he had a dream that not all the Isle members would make it. Sami was horrified at the conversation but had to push it aside for now. Getting to Isle VI, Sami led everyone inland where they found Alex the Aye-Aye and other Mutants who had heeded Sami's video PSA and came to help. Quickly, Sami led everyone back to the boat while a stampede of Keeper supporting Mutants chased them. Reaching the ship, they were attacked. They had no choice but to fight back. Unfortunately, Sami had to make her first kill: an old friend Kella. Distraught, Sami sobbed but Sonny Wilcox brought her back to her senses. She got to her feet and held her little brother, Jeremy. Finally, they made their way back to Isle III where the other members had set up camp. She embraced her siblings and Jeremy asks if they're going to die. Alison responds that she doesn't know. Jeremy vows that he will protect everyone, even Mark. After that, Sami spots another Royal Veteran member (Johanna Watterson) to ask about the dream Blake had about the Isle members dying. Johanna explains that Blake has a gift of precognition but sometimes he is wrong. Despite whether he is correct or not, Johanna informs Sami to enjoy the time she has now and not worry about the future. The evening past and night finally fell. Time for bed. CHAPTER 30 – AARON X (ANSWER KEY)

SUMMARY

The next morning Director Wyght wants to head inland to try and put off the fight until the next day and attain allies. He also believes they can reason with Nikita and Walter to reduce the casualties of the fight. The ones to go with the Director to meet the Headmaster and Keepers are the six Isle Commanders (Aaron included), Shane, Sonny, and Mr. Bamber. When they arrive, Mr. Nik immediately recognizes Mark and Shane and asks them where their sister is. He realizes now that he was wrong. He and Wally thought Shane was the one on the Isles, they didn't recognize Mark. Cutting the conversation short, Director Wyght demands they surrender. Mr. Nik refuses so the Director tries to reason with the other Keepers, telling them they're only manipulating children for their own gain. No better than the Invaders (Order of Xenophon). Mr. Bamber delivers a truth bearing speech that strikes a nerve. The first to crack is Mr. Calvin who speaks out against Mr. Nik. Wally in turn shoots him. The Assets' Keeper's final words were an apology to Marlene who says she finally remembers everything the Keeper did for her. Wally was about to shoot her too when Shane grabbed Wally and Sonny stepped in the way of Mr. Nik. No one expected what happened next. Mr. Nik called Sonny, Erik Patya...recognizing him as his son. Sonny cursed the Russian swearing Nikita was not his father. Mr. Nik still stands in awe as well as Wally. The Seers' Keeper notices the brand on the back of the RV's neck and affirms that it is indeed Erik Patya even though Sonny claims it isn't his real name. Ending the conversation, Mr. Nik says they will never give in and that it will all end the following day. The Isle Commanders, RV officers, and Mr. Bamber depart and make their way back to the camp. The moment they returned they prepared for battle. While Aaron was packing he overheard a conversation between Shane, Shannon, and another RV officer. Suspicious, he brings it up to Cecil and doubts what they're doing is worth it. Cecil reminds Aaron that they were never free and that trusting RRPR is their best choice. Finally, the sun had set and they had to rest for the upcoming battle. Before going to sleep, Marlene told everyone what Shane said to her the night before. She explained he had known her older sister who was a farmer like Marlene. Shane made a promise to her to find Marlene and give her the Best Family heirloom: a beautiful pocket watch. Marlene also told everyone that she remembered Mr. Calvin rescuing her and treating her as his own. She said he begged Mr. Nik not to take away her memories but it was no use. She was wiped and Mr. Calvin had to treat her like a regular Assets member. Not to end the night on a depressing note, Marlene starts a chain of three words that the Isle members never heard before: I love you. One by one, each Isle member said they loved each other and went to sleep...except for Aaron. He went outside for some fresh air, and his siblings followed. The other members of the Alexis family came out for a long hug goodnight. Once his siblings went to bed, Aaron went to the beach where he spoke with Mark for a little while. There, Mark thanked Aaron. If it wasn't for Aaron trusting him or looking up to him, Mark would've lost himself a long time ago. Aaron saved Mark's life. Finishing their conversation, they gave each other a manly hug and went to bed, knowing that the events of the next day would change things forever.

CHAPTER 31 – ALISON XI

(ANSWER KEY)

SUMMARY

The next morning the Seventeen were dragged into the Director's tent to go over the plan. The regular soldiers first then the Seventeen follow. They intend to crush the head (Mr. Nik and Wally) with hopes that the body will crumble. Alison is terrified and Axel does all he can to comfort her, saying they'll be all right. Alison knows her and Axel will be fine, but she worries for the others. Finally, the battle begins and the army marches inland only to be greeted by walls of the Keepers' pawns. They had the oldest members on the outer defenses and the ages decreased as they got further in. The battle was long and gruesome. The members to fall before reaching Mr. Nik and Wally are as follows: Ursula died by electric spear; Harold was beaten to death; Zita by grenade; Cecil by a Seer's pistol; Marlene jumped on a grenade to save Ava and Donnie; Ava was shot; and Becca died from her wounds. So many lives were lost before the battle was over, and it wasn't looking good. Thankfully, the secret plan Shane, Shannon, and Myles were talking about the day before entailed contacting Chief Kapono Iokua and the Hawaiians and Mr. Allaway and the other Bionics. The three groups joined forces and turned the battle around. The rest of the Seventeen and the RPRR members finally made their way to the back where Mr. Nik, Wally, and the other Keepers were hiding. They were about to engage when a blast from behind knocked them all off their feet, killing Mr. Nik's allies and tearing off one of Wally's arms. Sonny struggled to his feet first and stormed to Nik, shooting him three times. Before dying, Mr. Nik screams and fires his gun at Mark. Jeremy jumps in the way and takes the bullet for him. Shocked, Mr. Nik curses and blames the Hodgins for the ruined world. He then turns to Alison and isn't sure whether to thank her or hate her. Her father had spared Mr. Nik's life and he thought he'd return the favor (he references the scar on his neck). He curses the Hodginses and the Alexuses. Infuriated, Alison ends his life. Nicolas Eerkens in turn ends Wally's. Once the other Keepers surrender, the battle is over. Returning to the camp, the remaining Isle members (Alison, Sami, Aaron, Axel, Ethan, Lucas, Yared, and Donnie) and RV officers sit in silence together. Alison writes the events in her record log and Aaron asks why Mr. Nik hated the Hodginses so much. Mark is too distraught to talk about it. He took Jeremy's death harder than anyone. Trying to make him feel better, Shannon finally kisses Mark's cheek. This turns the conversation around and causes everyone to remember the joyous lives their friends lived. Alison vows that day to never take her life or the life of anyone she cares about for granted.
